The Major League

TML1992

by Jim Pertierra

In preparing to write this 14th installment of what we affectionately call, "TML History", I took a waltz through the 200+ pages of the 1993 issues of the Summer Stretch to get my bearings.

The year started out with Craig Christmann's Los Angeles Spiders thwarting Rocky Hall's Kentucky Wardogs chance at a threepeat in a rematch of the TML13 World Series. For the Spiders, it was their 2nd TML title having won back in TML5 (or TML1983) as the L&M Librae.

The year ended in anticipation of a Buffalo/Thunder Bay World Series clash that will be detailed later in these pages.

What went on in between is now chronicled in this book. The TML14 yearbook (now to be officially known as TML1992) that you hold in your hands is much delayed due to me. In prior years, I would produce a lot of the pages on the Macintosh and port them over to Mike for layout. During 1994 my Macintosh (and all the templates) bit the big one 5 times. Being the supreme procrastinator that I am, I kept on putting off doing the work until the machine came back. Darned if the machine never came back.

As an end result the book is now being produced in a Windows environment and, will be out on time forever and ever, or my name is mud.

There were some great achievements in TML1992. There was the 7 man batting title chase over in the American finally won by Gary Sheffield of Rocky Mountain. There was the dominance of the Buffalo pitching in proving that pitching and defense are utterly dominant in this game. (Check out the Meat batters!). There was Juan Gonzalez's sweep of the home run titles. There was Edgar Martinez's big win in the National Batting race. There was the mano e mano struggle between New Britain and Gotham City all season. There was the three team shooting match in the Robinson that wasn't settled until the fat lady cleared her throat.

All those and more will be before your eyes as you move through this book.

A few words about Xavier Hernandez's mark - if Clemens hadn't been good, God only can guess how more artificial it would have been. Chalk it up there with Dennis Lewallyn in my book.

Most importantly, League-wise, was that the expansion teams finally took the field and, on the whole, did very well. The expansion had been so carefully worked out and executed over such a long period of time, a lot of us were surprised in looking back that this was their first season.

We have become quite a club, haven't we? It has been a running joke over the past decade that the American Association is like a Phi Beta Kappa fraternity and the National is like Animal House. If it wasn't that way, this probably never would have worked.

The diversity each of you bring to the table has made this into a long running show with no final curtain in sight. I would guess that one of the main reasons The Major League has survived the 2nd year syndrome, the 5 year plan, the 10th anniversary blah's and now looks year 15 in the eye is the fact that we have never been afraid to disagree with each other.

In business there is (and of course this is denied feverishly) a great degree of politics melded into every decision. If you know Mike Landin and myself, you know that neither of us is a political animal. Mike is probably the most honest person I know. Me, I've always been a compromiser. If you've ever had a beef about the way things are run around here, I certainly have never heard anyone hesitate.

Mike sometimes mentions that we do not get a lot of positive feedback. I think people, by nature, find it easier to criticize things. I can not remember something that we were criticized for that we might not have deserved. Keep those cards and letters coming in!

Just before closing, here is my annual listing of the managers that have been hanging around the frat house since the beginning in TML1979:
Mike Landin, John Gatto, Carl Carpenter, Mike Mayko, Doug Zuchowski, Frank Lentine, Jim Schembari, Art Albanese, Dave Pittner, Rocky Hall, Rich Goldberg, Larry Alber and Jim Pertierra as the Beaver.

And those Managers who have been around for 10 or more years:
Joe Steinmetz (12), Mark Hetterich (13), Larry Rumsey (10), Bob Weisman (11), Bruce Clark (11), Dennis Gage (10), Bill Vincent (10).

Let me finish echoing the words I wrote last time around, which I think are still valid: Let us vow to keep in touch and further vow to always communicate our ideas. There is nothing that will convince me that the greatest idea for the TML has not been spoken yet. Just think how great that will be!

'Til next year.....

McGriff added a solo shot in the 7th, as the American pitchers held the National to 5 hits. The "Eck" retired Thomas with 2 on in the 9th for the save.

The Season Story

Another grotesque, gothic effort. Managed to avoid cellar by 9 games, but also managed to lose 103 games. Management avoided getting "dinged" at the draft for overuse. Unfortunately, bookkeeping woes beset the team and they were dinged for late payment of dues. It is clear that this team needs a baby-sitter. Applications are currently being accepted. Hopefully, the team has hit bottom. Robby Thompson, Mike Greenwell and Shane "Sushi" Mack and a solid starting corps offers hope.

The Season Story

The Clippers had a strong season from start to finish, capturing the division title. The team was led by the "golden arm" of Greg Maddux (25-7, 2.14, 7 Sho) and his "Pitcher of the Year" stats. John Smoltz chipped in at 22-9 as the #2 starter. "Eck" was again the "King" of the bullpen and captured "Fireman of the Year" honors with 46 SVs and 47 RPs. The offense was steady and led by Kirby Puckett (.334, 136 RBIs). Mark McGwire was a major disappointment! The eventual loss to Colonie in the playoffs is one thing, but the manner in which we lost still hurts ...

The Season Story

The offense was horrendous and with Steve Avery's sore wing causing the staff no end of troubles, Manager Zach Wheat's inaugural season wasn't what he would have wished.

CHETICAMP Micmacs

Manager: Eric Rogers (Barbara)

Age: 35 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

With the league's best offense and mediocre, but adequate pitching, Cheticamp won 95 games, making the playoffs for the first time since I took over the team in 1985. Thomas, Buhner and Baerga all had 100+ RBIs and Lankford led the league in 2Bs and was 2nd in RCs. A deep bench, led by Boston (.333, 9.22 RCs/27), Bichette and Browne helped. The pitching was nothing special, although Glavine had a strong year (19 Ws) and even Olivares won 18 in 30 starts. The weak link was the bullpen, as Scanlon blew 12 SVs, although he did get 9 SVs in the last 28 games to break the team record with 30 SVs. The lack of consistent pitching did not bode well in the playoffs, as Thunder Bay swept the Micmacs in 4 straight. Still, it was a great year!

CHICAGO Bruins

Manager: John Gatto (Sylvia)

Age: 66 Occupation: Retired

The Season Story

When you've wallowed below .500 for 6 years, 3rd place (with an 81-79 record) suddenly looks awfully good. DeLeon going 16-16 (3.38), Don Robinson (3.17) and trades that brought Mo Vaughn, Blauser and Sosa to the team were strong factors in this breakthrough. We're still backing up the truck releasing 8 more this winter. With the infusion of these players added to the veterans Tewksbury, Stewart, Grace, Caminiti, Gonzalez and Whiten, the team should finally be pointed in the right direction, despite the old manager. Christmas wish is a "closer", since Meacham and Worrell are planning an off-year.

COLDWATER Lakers

Manager: Larry Rumsey (Carolyn)

Age: 50 Occupation: Retired

The Season Story

Coldwater ends up 76-84. I had one All Star on my team in Roberto Alomar (.316) and solid hitting from Surhoff (.271) and Livingstone (.276). I had one power hitter in Fielder (24 HRs). My top pitchers were Tapani (13-12, 3.17) and Harnisch (13-12, 3.44). Relief staff "ace" was Henneman (25 SVs, 3.07).

COLONIE Flames

Manager: Mike Short (Monica)

Age: 39 Occupation: D.P. Director

The Season Story

Simply the best starting pitching in American history, including records for ERA, fewest hits, fewest runs, fewest earned runs, fewest HRs and most team shutouts. The staff notched 1000+ Ks for the 8th straight year. Randy Johnson is the first Flame to win more than 20 games. Tom Candiotti tossed the first Flames no-hitter. ("Hitting a knuckleball is like trying to play catch on a trampoline!" ... Andy Van Slyke.) Could have used some offense in the playoffs. No HRs from Pendleton in the last 40 games, for example. Next year, thin pitching, no speed, good defense and lots of power. Flames have 701 wins in last 7 seasons.

COOCH's Clowns

Manager: Greg Couture

Age: 18 Occupation: Student

The Season Story

Pre-season expectations were met. Finished year with 3rd worst record in the American. Incaviglia did well when he played and Dale Murphy was 2nd on team in HRs behind Chris Hoiles. Dave Magadan was also steady on a weak ballclub. I feel that the Clowns have a chance at the playoffs, pending the outcome of the draft and trades.

LOS ANGELES Spiders

Manager: Craig Christmann

Age: 37 Occupation: Geologist

The Season Story

Excellent and somewhat surprising 104-win season for a team with good, but not great, offense and pitching. The Spiders did most things well, but really excelled at getting on base (Whitaker, Raines, Newson), limiting opponents' walks (Rijo, Appier, Hibbard) and cutting off opponents' power (Appier was awesome). Unfortunately, the season finished abruptly with a loss to New Jersey in the 1st round of the playoffs.

The Season Story

For being my first full year as manager of my own team, things didn't go that bad, except for the pitchers. Looking forward to seeing Jack Morris on the Waiver List.

MORDOR Marauders

Manager: Phil Schumacher (Cindy)

Age: 27 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Marauders started out slow ... very slow ... and after Series 6 were tied with the 2nd worst record in the league. However, midway through the Summer Stretch, strong pitching, along with timely hitting, combined to push the Marauders to a 15-15 summer. Behind Key, Wegman and Eldred, and the reemergence of Schooler, the Marauders ended with the 7th worse record, playing only 6 games under .500 for the 2nd half of the season. Overall, this team showed strong starting pitching, mediocre relief and very little power. Tough defense allowed them to stay in many games.

The Season Story

A satisfying, enjoyable season, marred only by losing the regular season Williams Division crown to L.A., despite winning 102 games. The "Speed Patrol" of Lofton/Roberts/Sanders were directly linked to Joe Carter's 132 RBIs. With Lofton capping the SB crown, Palmiero nailed the century mark in ribbies for the 2nd straight year. From the mound, Jim Abbott became the league's dominant lefty, going 20-4 (1.97) in only 28 starts. Chris Nabholz had a terrific 17-7 mark and Joe Hesketh was 8-1 as a spot starter. So, the southpaw brigade combined for a 45-12 record! Steve Farr was steady again as the primary closer.

OKLAHOMA Supercells

Manager: Mark Plate

Age: 28 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

I expected the "new" Supercells to be improved over the "old" Supercells. They were over the first half of the year. However, after the 43-47 start against outside competition, the Supercells were no match for the tough competition of the Gehrig Division, going 22-48 against divisional rivals. The Supercells lost 23 of their final 28 games to finish 65-95. Kevin Reimer and Willie McGee were the most consistent offensive performers for the team and John Vander Wal was a pleasant surprise. The pitching staff was a disappointment, as Nagy and Schilling did not live up to expectations and Wetteland's ERA soared above 4.00. The team is counting on Wetteland to be much more effective next season.

The Season Story

Superior bullpen and decent starting pitching carried a weak offense all season. Dibble (1.47), Plunk (1.55), Boever (1.62), X.Hernandez (2.10) and Edens (2.93) were solid. Ken Hill led the starters with a 16-8 record (2.60). The offensive star was Joey Belle, who plated 98 runs and cracked 31 HRs. Jay Bell and Jefferies contributed to an offense that underachieved. Harper hit .280 in a full-time catcher role. The leading hitter was Lenny Dykstra at .328 in a limited role. This team should be dynamite in 1994, with a very potent lineup and solid pitching.

The Season Story

We played as well as expected. Our pitching was better than I thought, but after the first four guys in the lineup, we were nothing better than horrible. Not much more to say, except that we "can't wait till next year". The typical Chicago thing to say. The highlight of the year was Rockford's G.M. visiting and seeing the computer game for the first time.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN Chinooks

Manager: Jeff Chapman (Sally)

Age: 27 Occupation: Meteorologist

The Season Story

The Chinooks compiled the best record (79-81) of the expansion franchises, to the shock and delight of the management. Consistent with teams managed in the past, this team could not win at home. They did better on enemy turf. Team MVP Sheffield led an offense that at most times could not support an unexpectedly solid pitching staff. A finish below .500 next year would be disappointing ...

SHERLOCK C's

Manager: Carl Carpenter (Carol)

Age: 37 Occupation: Accountant

The Season Story

Sherlock finished under .500 for the 2nd time ever and the first time since 1986, breaking a string of 5 straight 95+ win seasons. The G.M. has been particularly inept since last year's expansion draft, losing Puckett, Daulton, H.Reynolds, Taubensee, Brett, McCaskill, Olin and K.Gibson, with no compensation in return. We will be stronger in 1994, but the playoffs are unlikely.

'SKAYUNA Squires

Manager: Hank Pedicone (Eileen)

Age: 43 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

The Squires rolled the dice and came up with a huge improvement, racking up 101 wins, after only 66 in 1992. Unfortunately, the 2nd place team in the Robinson Division had 102. It was an exciting season, especially with the adventures of Dale Sveum (615 PAs and 46 errors). The down side is that next season promises to be a long one, with all the pitchers going south. So, it's back to the drawing board.

THUNDER BAY Lightning

Manager: Bill Graham (Cathy)

Age: 44 Occupation: Attorney

The Season Story

Going into the 1993 season, I put together a team I hoped would win 85-90 games. To say this team exceeded expectations is a gross understatement. The Lightning won 105 games, to finish first in the Robinson Division. Both Colonie (102) and 'Skayuna (101) were in hot pursuit. As well as those two teams played, it is a shame that the Squires did not make the playoffs. Dennis Rasmussen tossed a no-hitter - the 3rd I've experienced as a TML manager. The highlight of the season though, has to be winning the American Association crown. So, I started the season hoping to be competitive and end up winning the Association. As Joaquin once said, "There is one word to describe what can happen, and that one word is: youneverknow!"

WALLA WALLA Wombats

Manager: Bryan Sakolsky

Age: 26 Occupation: Nomad

The Season Story

Wombats rebounded from a 3rd place finish in 1992 to win 109 games this season. Andy Van Slyke had a super season, hitting over .320, with double-figures in 2Bs, 3Bs, HRs and SBs, with 100+ runs and RBIs. Langston won 22 games and Morgan 19. The top four relievers in the bullpen had ERAs below 2.00, with 11 RWs and 40 SVs. All-in-all, it was a total team effort. Only Bonilla (.217) disappointed.

WISCONSIN Phoenix

Manager: Dave Schumacher

Age: 22 Occupation: Student

The Season Story

For an expansion team, the season started OK. The Phoenix were sitting around a .400 winning percentage for much of the season. A late season collapse dropped the Phoenix to their .325 finish. With a couple good looking youngsters, it looks as if Wisconsin may be starting to build a base for a decent team. However, the Phoenix are still a few years away from rising out of the ashes.

ZAGAZIG Zilches

Manager: Bob Weisman

Age: 33 Occupation: College Prof./Meteorology

The Season Story

The Zilches were a surprisingly pleasant diversion from life's troubles, as they contended for a Wild Card slot for much of the season and ended up over .500 for only the 4th time in team history. Hollins and Grissom hit over their heads for most of the year, before returning to reality in October. It was part-timers like Davis, Pena, Williams and Briley which shot this team to a 60-45 record from May through September, including an incredible 20-10 Summer Stretch. The Zilches also made the most of their pitching. The tandems of Gross/Fernandez and Feters/Olson were effective, but when Mason and Hillegas started, the Zilches looked more like the Zilches of old. Next year, a decent bullpen and a decent offense could allow the Zilches to take another shot at the playoffs.

Stat Key

Below you will find some explanations on a few stat categories:

RC: runs created ($RC = [A \text{ times } B] \text{ divided by } C$), where,

$$A = H + W + HBP - CS - GIDP$$

$$B = TB + .26 \times (TBB - IBB + HBP) + .52 \times (SH + SF + SB)$$

$$C = AB + TBB + HBP + SH + SF$$

RC / 27 outs: runs created per 27 outs; in other words, the number of runs a player would create if he were to bat in all nine positions in the batting order.

QS: quality starts; the number of starts in which a pitcher pitches six (6) innings or more and gives up three (3) runs or less.

OAVG: the batting percentage against each pitcher.

Batting & Pitching Leaders: the following symbols were used to denote individual accomplishments that were record-breakers:

★ - TML Record

Ⓢ - American Association Record

✱ - National Association Record

□ - Tied any of the above records

Team Stats: an asterisk (*) preceding any stat indicates that the player or pitcher led his Association in that stat category; a dot (•) indicates that the player or pitcher tied for the lead in his Association in that stat category.

The Season Story

Pitching, pitching, pitching and then, more pitching, to the tune of a TML record 2.16 team ERA. With an everyday lineup that included Belliard at ss, McLemore at 2b, Sciosia at c, Pettis at cf and as cast of characters at 3b, it was amazing that the team was successful. Especially with Bonds at only .246, 21 HRs & 76 RBIs, where did the offense come from? Perhaps from Warren Newson, who was "leadoff man extraordinaire", with 156 BBs and a .398 OBP. Or, Sid "Clutch Hit/Speed Merchant" Bream. Most likely, team MVP Brady Anderson, who did a little over everything, as he was in double-figures in every batting stat category! A satisfying season.
